

Probable Cause Panel Meeting June 13, 2003

On June 13, 2003, in Disciplinary Cases, by Smith Thompson Law

June 13, 2003

I. Unlicensed Cases

Kise, Straw & Kolodner
Case No. 2003-043658

Probable Cause was found that Kise, Straw & Kolodner was offering architectural services without a certificate of authorization. A Notice and Order to Cease and Desist was issued, along with a request that Mr. Straw sign an affidavit stating the business will refrain from holding itself out as providing architectural services unless properly licensed. If Mr. Straw fails to return the affidavit, an administrative complaint seeking fines will be filed.

Thomas G. Lynn
Lynn & Partners
Case Nos. 2003-044434 & 2003-044420

Probable Cause was found that Thomas G. Lynn was offering architectural services. Mr. Lynn is licensed in Georgia, but his letterhead offers architectural services with a Florida address. A Notice and Order to Cease and Desist was issued, along with the filing of an Administrative Complaint seeking fines.

Joseph M. McHarris
McHarris Planning and Design
Case No. 2003-042411

Probable Cause was found that Joseph M. McHarris contracted with the City of Marco Island to perform architectural services and held himself as an architect on his resume. A Notice and Order to Cease and Desist was issued, along with the filing of an Administrative Complaint seeking fines.

Johnny Moore
Quickdraw Designs, Inc.
Case No. 2003-045230

Probable Cause was found that Johnny Moore contracted to provide architectural services and held himself out as an architect on the Internet. A Notice and Order to Cease and Desist was issued, along with the filing of an Administrative Complaint seeking fines.

Joseph A. Rispoli
Case No. 2003-002397

Probable Cause was found that Joseph A. Rispoli held himself out as the architect of record on his resume for numerous projects. Further, Mr. Rispoli signed two contracts to provide architectural services. A Notice and Order to Cease and Desist was issued, along with the filing of an Administrative Complaint seeking fines.

Eduardo Roussell
Residential Designs, Inc.
Case No. 2003-004742

Probable Cause was found that Eduardo Roussell contracted to perform architectural services. A Notice and Order to Cease and Desist was issued, along with the filing of an Administrative Complaint seeking fines.

Julie Schiff
Case No. 2003-042285

Probable Cause was found that Julie Schiff signed a letter as "Project Architect". A Notice and Order to Cease and Desist was issued, along with the filing of an Administrative Complaint seeking fines.

George J. Sorbara
Case No. 2003-042527

Probable Cause was found that George J. Sorbara is doing business as Architectural Drafting and Design. A Notice and Order to Cease and Desist was issued, along with the request that Mr. Sorbara sign an affidavit stating he will refrain from holding himself out as an architect and he will change the name of his business. If Mr. Sorbara fails to return the affidavit, an Administrative Complaint seeking fines will be filed.

Rolando Sosa
Case No. 2003-002403

Probable Cause was found that Rolando Sosa held himself out as the project architect on numerous projects. Further, Mr. Sosa signed four contracts to provide architectural services. A Notice and Order to Cease and Desist was issued, along with the filing of an Administrative Complaint seeking fines.

Tim K. Tripp
Case No. 2003-042259 Probable cause was found that Tim K. Tripp performed architectural services without a license. Mr. Trip was previously licensed, but his license is now null and void. Mr. Tripp contracted, prepared plans, and was paid for architectural services. A Notice and Order to Cease and Desist was issued, along with the filing of an Administrative Complaint seeking fines.

II. Licensed Cases

William Arthur
Case No. 2003-001523

Probable cause was found that William Arthur's seal was placed over the seal of a professional engineer who actually prepared the set of plans. An Administrative Complaint seeking fines was filed.

Janet L. Bakel
Case No. 2003-001287

Probable cause was found that Janet L. Bakel was the vice-president of Sternberg Interiors, Inc. Sternberg did not have a certificate of authorization. In December 2001, Mr. Sternberg issued a press release offering interior design services. An Administrative Complaint seeking fines was filed.

Eric D. Baker
Case No. 2003-001845

Probable cause was found that Eric D. Baker failed to include his license number on a sign and failed to respond to all inquiries from the initial investigation. A Notice and Order to Cease and Desist was issued, along with a request that Mr. Baker sign an affidavit stating he has changed his sign to include his license number. If Mr. Baker fails to return the affidavit, an Administrative Complaint seeking fines will be filed.

Jorge L. Bouza
Case No. 2003-042298

Probable cause was found that Jorge L. Bouza signed and sealed documents which were not prepared under his supervisory control. An Administrative Complaint seeking fines was filed.

Robert Wayne Herrmann
Case No. 2002-011607

Probable cause was found that Robert Wayne Herrmann revised structural drawings prepared by a professional engineer, and submitted the drawings for permitting purposes without the consent or knowledge of the professional engineer. An Administrative Complaint seeking fines was filed.

Douglas A. Mummaw
Mummaw & Associates, Inc.
Case Nos. 2003-042282 & 2003-042289

Probable cause was found that Douglas A. Mummaw signed documents as an architect and he is unlicensed. The firm, Mummaw & Associates, Inc. is licensed, but the firm is advertising using a null and void interior designer license number and permits unlicensed individuals to act on its behalf. A Notice and Order to Cease and Desist was issued, along with the filing of an Administrative Complaint seeking fines.

Rispoli-Sosa Architecture, Inc.
Case No. 2003-002391

Probable cause was found that Rispoli-Sosa Architecture, Inc., has not had a qualifier since April 11, 2003, and two of the firm's principals, who are unlicensed, have continuously held themselves out as architects under the firm name. An Administrative Complaint seeking fines was filed.

Marsha S. Shane
Case No. 2003-001386

Probable cause was found that Marsha S. Shane offered interior design services through a corporation that does not have a certificate of authorization. A Notice and Order to Cease and Desist was issued, along with a request that Ms. Shane sign an affidavit stating she has changed her advertisement.

Donald Stansell
Case No. 2003-001559

Probable cause was found that Donald Stansell signed seven certificates of payment which state they were based on on-site observation; however, Mr. Stansell did not inspect the site. An Administrative Complaint seeking fines was filed.